EYFS	Understanding the World History in the Early Years is embedded within the area of learning: Understanding the world. Children will gain an understanding of their role within their family, the wider community, and the world. They will: Identify that things have happened in the past, relating to themselves and within living memory Begin to identify that some things have happened before they were born – relating to family such as parents and grandparents Identify that some things within living memory have changed and some things have stayed the same – growing up, changing teachers/classrooms etc. Understanding that some events and people from history are important because they have achieved something or had an effect Start to ask simple questions about people or events from within living memory Use simple words to describe the passing of time, e.g., 'past' 'before' 'now' 'then' This helps prepare them for being able to talk about themselves with more confidence in Year 1 & how to relate what they think about themselves to what they find out about the past. Early Learning Goals: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To talk about past and present events in their own lives and in the lives of family members • To know about similarities and differences between themselves and others, and among families, communities and traditions.
