

What I should already know:

- My address is information about where I live.
- Personal details belong to me—they are my identity.
- An adult must know where I am at all times.
- We can protect our belongings by locking them away safely.
- The police can be contacted in emergency by dialling 999.

By the end of this unit:

- Understand more fully the concept of trust
- Know which adults they can trust and who can help them
- Recognise risk in different situations and make judgements about behaviour and decisions about safety
- Understand why rules make situations less risky
- Understand that ourselves and our belongings need to be kept safe from crime

Key Facts at the end of the unit:

- Trust is one of the most important aspects of a relationship
- An act of trust should be consistent
- Stop, Look, Listen, Think is a safety sequence for road safety.
- You should only cross the road at a marked pedestrian crossing.
- Never share your personal information with a stranger

Vocabulary

Caring	Displaying kindness and care for others.
Community	A group of people living in the same place or having a particular characteristic in common.
Friendship	Being friends with others.
Honesty	Being truthful and sincere.
Qualities	A strong attribute or characteristic possessed by someone or something.
Road Safety	Methods and measures used to prevent road users from being killed or seriously injured.
Safety Precautions	An action taken to protect you against possible dangers.
Trust	Firmly believing in someone.
Valuables	Things that you own that are worth a lot of money.