

What I should already know:

- Love in family is shown when you are kissed, hugged, praised or complimented.
- Saying sorry can help us build a happy family and mend broken friendships.
- Telling the truth allows others to trust you and shows you are an honest person,
- My family set rules and boundaries to keep me safe.
- I can say “I do not feel safe. I want my _____” if I feel uncomfortable or unsafe.
- God gave us life, parents, brothers, sisters, family, friends, school, teachers, priests and the beautiful world.

By the end of this unit :

- Recognise the joy and friendship of belonging to a diverse community
- Describe ways of being safe in communities
- Celebrate ways of meeting God in our communities

Key Facts at the end of the unit:

- A community is a group of people who have things in common.
- Respect, love, care, generosity of spirit, loyalty and forgiveness are all examples values that enrich a community.
- If I am worried I can speak to a trusted adult
- I should not keep secrets if it is about my safety or another person’s safety.
- My body is my own and I am entitled to privacy.
- Understand people can behave differently online.
- Love others as Jesus loves you is our school motto
- We meet God in the community—during mass in church or in school.

Vocabulary

Community	A group of people who have things in common. They might live in the same area, go to the same school, do the same activities or have similar backgrounds.
Diverse	Different
Motto	A motto is a word, phrase or sentence used to describe the meaning or point of a group or organisation
Privacy	State of being private
Safe	Not likely to be harmed or lost
Trusted adult	Chosen by the young person as a safe figure that listens without judgment

Skills:

- | | |
|-----------------|------------|
| • Listening | Describing |
| • Observing | Informing |
| • Relating | Forgiving |
| • Speaking | |
| • Respecting | |
| • Praying | |
| • Reflecting | |
| • Understanding | |
| • Recognising | |